

Curriculum Consultant, Indigenous Education Program and Curriculum Development

Part-Time Position Available

Applicants are to clearly demonstrate how they satisfy the selection criteria in their written submissions and must identify the competition number they are applying for in the subject line of the email

This competition may be used to establish a 12 month eligibility list of qualified candidates for future vacancies.

Red River College is a leader in applied learning and innovation. Our talented team of employees is passionate about education, innovation and student success. We offer competitive salaries, extensive benefits, and the opportunity for personal and professional growth in a rewarding career.

Duties:

The Curriculum Consultant: Indigenous Education will support the college's mandate for the integration of indigenous worldviews into teaching, learning and applied research. The incumbent will be responsible for coaching, mentoring and assisting faculty in reviewing, revising, adapting and developing curricula to support indigenous education. S/he will also lead, advise and act as a resource for faculty, staff and senior administrators on curriculum related issues, policies, and procedures with respect to indigenous education.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's degree in Adult Education with emphasis in Indigenous Education; an equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered
- Several years of related work experience e.g. working directly with faculty, working with a non-government or a non-profit organization, and/or work with community groups
- Experience in planning, developing, and facilitating professional development workshops and feedback processes for faculty and staff with respect to Indigenous education and Indigenous worldview
- Experience coaching, mentoring and assisting faculty in reviewing, revising, adapting and developing curricula to support indigenous teaching and learning
- Experience monitoring curriculum related to policy implementation
- Experience in the development of intercultural communication between departments
- Ability to offer recommendations as a consultant in an unbiased manner
- Ability to deal with ambiguity
- Excellent problem-solving, interpersonal, oral and written communication skills
- Ability to work in a project team and individually with limited supervision
- Values Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Commitment to lifelong learning

Assets:

- Experience in conflict resolution
- Experience conducting educational research

Conditions of Employment:

- Applicants must be legally entitled to work in Canada

We seek diversity in our workplace. Aboriginal persons, women, visible minorities and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

Competition Number: 2017-116
Closing Date: October 18, 2017
Salary Range: $33.02 - $45.18 hourly

Apply to Red River College by email: humanresources@rrc.ca

We thank all applicants for their interest, but only those selected for an interview will be contacted. Red River College provides accommodations to applicants with disabilities throughout the hiring process. If an applicant requires accommodation during the application or selection process, Human Resource Services will work with the applicant to meet the accommodation needs.

For more information and other employment opportunities, visit blogs.rrc.ca/hr

2055 Notre Dame Ave, Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada R3J0J9